languages. Boots also reported their first-quarter results, which beat analysts' estimates. U.S. e-commerce giant Amazon.com posted another strong quarter Thursday, but the company warned that the year has been a "challenging period" for the business. Amazon reported first-quarter revenue of $39.1 billion, a 15 percent jump from the year-ago quarter. On an adjusted basis, Amazon's profit was $405 million, or 7 cents a share, topping the analyst consensus estimate of 7 cents. Analysts had expected Amazon's revenue of $39.4 billion and profit of 8 cents a share. Overall, the company reported a 29 percent jump in its profit to $1.76 billion, or 26 cents a share.

Analysts had expected a profit of 26 cents. Amazon's overall sales rose 16 percent to $36.8 billion, while overall revenue was up 17 percent to $37.9 billion. The company said its revenue was up more than 40 percent in all four of the company's geographic regions. Amazon now sells more items — including Kindle e-readers, Kindles, computers and gadgets — than any other retailer. Amazon is now the largest online retailer in the U.S., and it expects to surpass Wal-Mart in total sales in the country by the end of 2016. Amazon's sales in the U.S. now account for 53 percent of the company's total revenue.(WXIA-TV) — A judge ruled Monday to keep a lawsuit over the shooting of a
