We only had a few more episodes left of the show that was first heard in 1987. The show ran a little out of steam, but as they say - all good things must end. Thanks for listening! The M&M's are out and so is the Boy-racer. It really is the perfect time of the year to listen to this show. We went over some of the highlights from this show as well as a couple of new ones. Richard Alpert and I talked a lot about his writing - the books, The Return of the Jedi and Sleepy Hollow and some of the films that have been coming out lately and what they mean for the franchise and the overall line of films. Also, we chatted about the great DVD release that was re-released this month called The Empire Strikes Back. Like the novelization of that book, you can pick up the audio for that book at Amazon.com. Thanks for listening, and if you haven't done so already, check out the schedule for the rest of the year for our new broadcast day. The evening of August 25, 2007, we had a special gift for you. We brought the new books that are soon to be released: the novelizations of The Phantom Menace and Attack of the Clones. We chatted a bit about those two great books as well as a bit about some of the upcoming release dates in the Star Wars publishing world. Listen to the show and look out for the books when they are available. Thanks for listening! This was our 200th show. We chatted for a bit about what it all means and 6a5afdab4c
