Q: Xcode: Xcode open url scheme error I have followed the following instructions: to add a new url scheme to my app and get it to work. Then i tried to make a home page to the app which works, but when I go to a different page with a button in the navigation bar the app crashes with the following error: $ fatal error: NSInvalidArgumentException: -[DVCTimelineCollectionView initWithIndexPath:animated:] unrecognized selector sent to instance 0x10336d200 I have NO idea what that error means and how to fix it. I have looked at the code and even the two files "MainStoryboard_iPhone.storyboard" and "MainStoryboard_iPad.storyboard" and the class doesn't even contain that function. Any ideas on how to fix this? A: I assume it has something to do with this error: $ fatal error: NSInvalidArgumentException: Which doesn't make sense because the function initWithIndexPath:animated: is defined within the DVCTimelineCollectionView.h Methamphetamine (MA) addiction is a major health care issue in the United States, with high rates of relapse and mortality. MA use can markedly influence the dopamine (DA) and serotonin (5-HT) systems and may cause dopamine depletion resulting in cognitive impairments. The 5-HT system regulates behavior, learning, and memory by affecting synapse formation, glutamate (GLU) transmission, and neuroplasticity. Changes in 5-HT1A receptor function are also implicated in alcohol-related memory impairment. The purpose of this study is to determine if selective 5-HT reuptake inhibitors (SSRIs) will attenuate methamphetamine-induced alterations in 5-HT1A receptors and to evaluate the potential role of 5-HT1A receptors in drug addiction. I have found that chronic MA produces hypodopaminergic function that is accompanied by dopaminergic receptor supersensitivity and 5-HT1A receptor overexpression. Preliminary data demonstrate that chronic MA increases 5-HT1A receptors in rat hippocampus and striatum, and that the SSRI fluoxetine alters the excitability and GLU transmission of 5-HT neurons in vitro. Finally, I have
