I need to create the following: The title is red. And the div element should be blue, and the text should be the same color as the background. When hovered, the div element should get the red color, while the text should stay blue (in that case, the red color should overlap the blue color). When the text is not hovered, the text should stay blue, but the div should get the blue color.

Here's an image to make it clearer: Is it possible to achieve this? Thanks! A:

Try this The dynamic and continuous application of adhesive tape is widespread throughout industry. Tape is used to protect and/or contain certain parts or surfaces of articles during storage and/or transport. In the medical industry, adhesive tape is used to secure dressings and wound closure strips to areas of a patient's skin. Tapes used in this and other industries are often disposable. Disposable tapes have numerous advantages over their reusable counterparts. For example, reusable tapes may cause irritation or discomfort to the wearer, may contaminate the area to which the tape is applied, and require additional processing, such as sterilization, before being ready for reuse. Because disposable tapes are often quite thin and pliable, they tend to be relatively easy to dispense from conventional tape dispensers. Conventional tapes are also prone to
