Murphy (born February 25, 1988) is a former American soccer player and currently is the head coach of the UCLA Bruins men's soccer team. Early life and college Murphy was born in Washington, D.C. and attended Westminster College in Salt Lake City, Utah where he played college soccer. Career Youth and amateur Murphy had a decorated career at the club level, winning five consecutive NCAA Division I titles at Westminster and two All-American honors as an outfielder for the Bruins. Professional Murphy spent time training with both the New England Revolution and the Portland Timbers ahead of the 2013 MLS SuperDraft, but was not selected in the draft. In February 2013, Murphy signed with USL Pro club Sacramento Republic on a three-year deal. He appeared in a total of 8 matches for Sacramento Republic in his first season with the club, including two goals in the team's two postseason matches. Murphy did not feature for the club in the 2014 season, but spent time in Sacramento during the off-season training with USL Pro clubs Los Angeles Blues and LA Galaxy II. On December 9, 6d1f23a050
