Meanwhile, the spokesperson for the country's top military body has said Pakistan's defense must be strengthened. Maj. Gen. Asif Ghafoor, the ISPR's director general, said on Thursday that he expected better cooperation from the US on the issue of combatting extremism. In a press conference held on the sidelines of the UN General Assembly, he said that the country needs a "permanent partnership with the US" to overcome the security challenges facing the country. "We need to build a permanent partnership with the US, and part of it is US understanding that we need to make Pakistan's defense a priority and we need to spend less on our enemies," Maj. Gen. Asif Ghafoor said. Later, Gen.

The genetic organization of two lytic bacteriophages of Lactobacillus sakei differs significantly from that of the six previously described phages of L. sakei. The two newly characterised phages belong to the family Siphoviridae, subfamily Caudovirinae and are closely related to each other. They both belong to the subgroup Cc3 and are also closely related to some sequences isolated from L. helveticus, Staphylococcus aureus and S. epidermidis. The two phages differ from the lysogens of two previously described L. sakei phages.The present invention relates to a controller for a variable-frequency motor drive, and in particular to a controller which regulates the speed of a variable-frequency motor drive that is used to drive one or more air-conditioning compressors. Variable frequency drives (VFD) are used to control the speed of induction motors as well as synchronous motors and permanent-magnet motors. A VFD is a variable speed drive and controls the speed of a motor or generator by dynamically changing the frequency 6d1f23a050
