Former Baylor Bear Christian Coleman Discusses the Most Positive Part of His BCS Championship Experience During Baylor's run to the BCS national championship, Christian Coleman was an integral part of the team. He was the go-to back on offense, and he was the top performer in Baylor's massive upset of Kansas State in the Big 12 championship game. Coleman was a two-time First Team All-American and earned All-American honors as a freshman in 2013. He also played in two bowl games and was part of three consecutive top-five rushing offenses. After the 2014 season, he elected to forgo his senior season and enter the 2015 NFL Draft. When all of the madness is finally over, what was the best moment of his 2013–14 Baylor career? Christian Coleman: The best moment of my career was the Big 12 championship. That was probably the best moment of my career. Just being a part of the team, being on the field and
