More information on FNDN can be found here. Chegg is a very cash rich company. With over $2.3 billion in cash and investments, we believe this position combined with strong and stable free cash flow, enable us to continue investing in our future growth initiatives and have the flexibility to strategically acquire businesses and assets that align with our strengths, while also protecting our shareholders by distributing more of our free cash to them. Our risk capital ratio of 17% is incredibly low, primarily due to a $4 billion line of credit we entered into with our banks in November and completed in December 2019, resulting in our Return on Capital Employed (ROCE) increasing to 53% from 42% last year.
