it's a self-determined achievement, that's all i'm saying. i never did nothing to do it, i just did it myself. and i did it from the bottom of my heart and i did it with no intentions. i didn't even know if anybody was going to hear my album until the final day. i still don't, you know, but it's already a good album. i'm happy with it, you know what i'm saying? i just did it, and i guess it got good. i had a feeling when i made my first album, i didn't know how i could actually do it, or if anybody was gonna be able to do it. you know, it was for snoop, snoop doggy dogg. i didn't know if it was gonna sound like snoop, or if it was gonna sound like me. and the way it ended up, it sounds like snoop. it's like snoop in the head. one of the major contributing factors of the success of a project is when you see the picture coming out of the artist and it looks like a piece of art. when you hear it, you think it's a piece of art. but when you see it, it looks like art. when you see the cover, it looks like snoop dogg. and i think that's the main reason that my album was so successful, because i'm a realist. i'm a realist. you know what i mean? i wanted to get as much out of my music as i could. and i knew that i could do it. and i wanted to get the most out of it that i could. and i'm very happy that it did what it did. and it still does. there's a lot of people out there who don't understand that, and i've been around long enough to know that. i did not set out to be one of the hardest rappers. i did not set out to be one of the biggest rappers, you know what i'm saying? i set out to do what i do best, and that was my thing.
