ApcoTech Corporation (“Apco”) is pleased to announce that it has entered into a definitive agreement with SGL Group, LLC (“SGL”), pursuant to which Apco will acquire all of the assets (including but not limited to, intellectual property, trade secrets, technology, know-how, customer lists, and other material relating to the business) and assets of SGL located at 9209 S. El Camino Real, Suite 211, Sacramento, California 95837 (“SGL Facility”) for the consideration of $110 million. The SGL Facility consists of 69,810 square feet in a currently leased warehouse facility in a high-traffic, business-friendly retail and commercial district. Apco’s acquisition of the SGL Facility is expected to be financed from existing cash and cash equivalents, debt financing and other credit facilities.

The acquisition, which is subject to various closing conditions, is expected to be completed within thirty days. Upon the closing of the transaction, Apco intends to operate the SGL Facility under its own name and business. Peter Balch, Chief Executive Officer of Apco, said: “We are pleased to announce this significant strategic investment in our business which strengthens our position as a leading alternative supplier of hydraulics solutions in the construction, manufacturing, mining, and infrastructure markets, and is another example of our team’s focus on the commercial end of the market and our ability to invest in a way that will grow our company and create shareholder value.”

About ApcoTech Corporation ApcoTech Corporation is a leading international hydraulics and electronic pump solutions provider. It is a diversified firm operating in three major business segments: valves, pumps, and automation. Its key products include mechanical fluid power systems, motion control devices, and
